

Renata Cruz

Coached by Ivan Petrov · Evaluated Aug 21, 2026, 6:05 PM

“Ask why the goal matters before explaining the programme, and build a North Star statement she confirms out loud.”

Do this and the call would have scored 71.

EVIDENCE

L18 Renata Cruz: “Yeah that's what we landed on.”

L24 Ivan Petrov: “Yeah, no, for sure, plantar fasciitis is one of those things that just doesn't want to quit, right? It affects everything else too, the whole chain.”

The mechanics were covered and the next steps were clear, but the call stayed transactional. Renata answered in single words for most of it and was never asked why any of this matters to her. She leaves knowing what to do and not why she is doing it.

✖ No emotional driver was ever surfaced

Nothing anchors her to the programme when the first hard week arrives. This is the profile that quietly cancels in month two.

EVIDENCE

L18 Renata Cruz: “Yeah that's what we landed on.”

Missed core elements, major retention risk.
